

User test 1 evaluation

In the previous user test, the following feedback was obtained

The Social interface needs to be separated from the friend interface and the community interface.

The Home interface needs essential functions to be placed on it.

The exercise interface needs more pictures and a little text.

Although the interface is good, the functions are all common and not enough to make a difference.